Chapter 1 by Story Wars

It was pure luck that I happened to look out the window when I did. Other wise no one would have seen the teenage girl trying to dump a box of baby guinea pigs in the beck.

It was pure luck that I drove past when I did. Other wise no one would have seen the teenage girl trying to leave an infant puppy in a dumpster.

It was pure luck once again that I saw her when I did, trying to buy a dozen baby mice.
